

Just the Facts: Skyway Welds

In early 2005, the Federal Bureau of Investigation commenced an investigation into allegations that welders on the Skyway were encouraged to 'cover up' defective welds. The Oakland Tribune covered the allegations extensively in an April 6, 2005 article.

The FBI found the allegations were not supported by evidence.

The Federal Highway Administration also assessed information and found no evidence of weld defects.